tor Full-yson is carotaker, and before ringing the ball as usual at 13, went to rippentish this furnace, which was situated under the chancel. He found the floor of the chancel on fire inderinantly, and at once gave the alarm. The first biggiet tunned out and soon, had a stream of water playing, upon the building, but too late to save it. As soon as the alarm was given efforts were made to save the contents, but only the communion service, some hooks and a small table could be removed. The organ and boll were decided.

buy the commutant service, sono hooks and a small table could be re-tuoved. The organ and boll were de-stroyed.

It is due to the fire brigade to say the they worked with a will, and as-promptly as could be expected, but they lacked organization. After two to is of hose had been laid, more was required and profured from the fire half, but, instead of taking what was lying ready in case of 55 emergency such as that was, several lengths of played out mose were dragged down from the fire was teaky and hindered that throwing of a sircani of that force of which the engine was capable. However, the strain was of sufficient vol-tume, to confide the first the building and saw adjoining prop try. The shuch it. ever, the stream was of sufficient volume, to omine the face to the building and save adjoining property. The church itself, being built of 'wood, could not have been saved under the circumstances, as under the best of organization, in the time precessary for laying the base and sarting up a stream of water the flames would have obtained such headway that the building would have been a week. At that could have been a week of the owner and the measure of the owner that the subtiling was harmed to the ground in the short space of one hour. Two measures one open of the law wates the burning timps, to prevent the buildings in tha vietnity.

A TREMENDOUS HIT.

The Great War Syndicate!

BY FRANK R. STOCKTON

The editor of this paper begs to announce that he has made arrangements with "Collier's Oife, a Week," through the American Press Association, whereby this paper will be enabled to publish, in serial form,

The Most Extraordinary Story of the Century,

THE GREAT WAR SYNDICATE

By FRANK R. STOCKTON, the famous litterateur, author of "Rudder Grange," Amos Kilbright.—His Adsictitious Experiences;" "The Bes-Man of Orn;" "The Christmas Wreck;" "The Lady or the Tiger," "The Late Mrs. Null;" "The Hundredth Man;" "The Casting Away of Mrs. Lecks and Mrs. Abs-shine;" "The Dusantes," Etc.

Mr. Stockton's powers of fascination were never so thoroughly exerted as in this most extraordinary story—

A Story Which Holds the Reader Breathless from Beginning to End.

Its appearance in "Collier's Once a Week" has caused the literary sensation of the year, and to its marvelons enchantment this enterpris-ing and charming paper owes much of its signal and phenomenal success.
